

STATEMENT FROM EurILCA

Last week during ILCA 6 World Championships very unpleasant and dissapointing situation happened, which bring our sport, class and association to a huge dispute.

Two young sailors were caught stealing equipment during the night from other ILCA boats.

This gross misconduct and misbehavior is not acceptable amongst our class and sailing community.

EurILCA always had and will have zero tolerance on any similar behavior and actions. Those sailors will be sanctioned for they acting accordingly by governing bodies.
